Felicia Vanhorn (center) released the tape for the Easter egg race to begin, and the older kids are ready to go. The Town of Pelahatchie, Pelahatchie Volunteer Fire Department and Pelahatchie Baptist Church hosted the Annual event.

The race is on to find the winning tickets which are hidden in the plastic Easter eggs.

Dylan Kovar and Gavin Lee won an Easter egg basket with a lot of goodies inside.

Megan Hall (left) and Spencer Sullivan (right), Pastor, Pelahatchie Baptist Church, stand by the prize table and wait for winners to arrive.

Every child received a treat of some kind, and they didn't seem to mind hunting indoors due to the rain.

Tedra Sirmon rolls cotton candy while Mechelle Myers scoops up the popcorn for the long line that formed.

The younger children had a separate room to gather Easter eggs.
